Dear Delegates,

Greetings from the organising committee of V CARE -2023.

We are delighted to welcome you for our National Conference on antenatal care.

Antenatal women require comprehensive care for maternal and fetal wellbeing.

It is an important health indicator of our country's wellbeing and it requires the diligent care and awareness. Our conference will be graced by eminent faculties from different parts of the nation who will enlighten us with their abundant knowledge.

Looking forward to your active participation.

We wish that our Conference will be a grand success.

ORGANISING COMMITTEE
