

JOURNAL CLUB

“Fluroquinolone drug resistance among MDR-TB patients increases the risk of unfavorable interim microbiological treatment outcome: An observational study”

The Department of Microbiology and Medical Education of Unit Sree Balaji Medical College & Hospital Conducted Journal Club on 17.02.2024 in the Audio Visual room, II Floor College Block from 2-3 pm. The Journal Club topic was “Fluroquinolone drug resistance among MDR-TB patients increases the risk of unfavorable interim microbiological treatment outcome: An observational study”

The Speaker for the Journal Club was Dr. Ram Kumar, I Year Postgraduate of Department of Microbiology, SBMCH. He spoke on Fluroquinolone drug resistance among MDR-TB patients and its treatment outcome. It was moderated by Dr. Aishwarya J Ramalingam M.D, Professor, Department of Microbiology, SBMCH. It was followed by discussion on that topic. All the delegates were benefitted by this session.

