JOURNAL CLUB ON

“A CASE CONTROL STUDY”

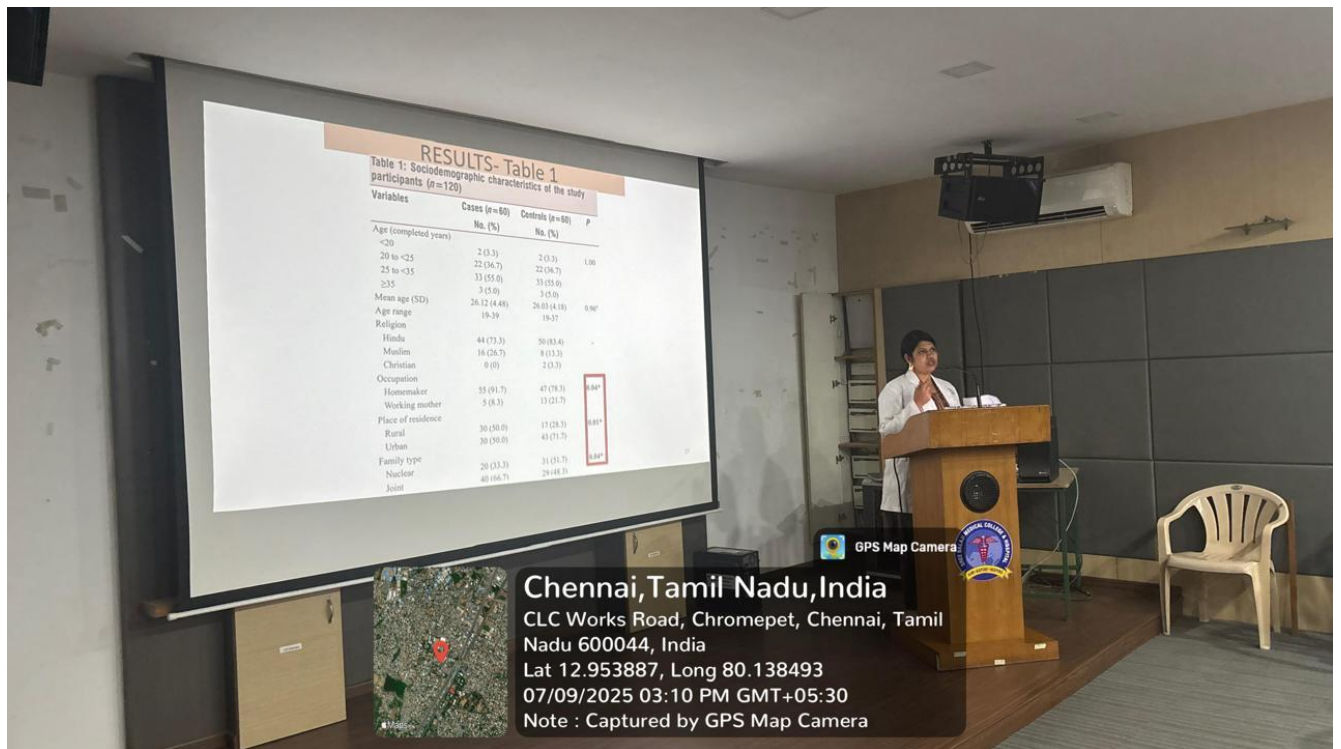

Date: 09.07.2025

Time: 2pm-4pm

Presenter – Dr. Kiruthika. N, Final Year Postgraduate

An article on a Case Control study published in IJCM titled ‘Predictors and pathway of maternal near miss: A case control study in a tertiary care facility in Kolkata’ was taken for critical appraisal. The journal club went for about 2 hours where the case control study was critically appraised using STROBE guidelines. The presenter explained the study under following topics including appraising the title and abstract, objectives, methodology, data collection process, bias assessment, result section, discussion, limitations ,and recommendations.

At the end of the Journal Club the presenter was asked questions by the faculties which were promptly answered by her. Doubts regarding the journal club were asked by the postgraduates which were cleared by the presenter.
