PG QUIZ COMPETITION – BREASTFEEDING WEEK 2025

As part of World Breastfeeding Week celebrations, a Postgraduate Quiz Competition was successfully organized on 4th August 2025, in collaboration between the Departments of Community Medicine, Paediatrics at our institution.

The event saw enthusiastic participation from postgraduate students, with five teams (A, B, C, D, and E) each comprising one PG from Community Medicine, Paediatrics, and Obstetrics & Gynaecology, promoting interdisciplinary teamwork and learning.

The quiz was conducted over five rounds, covering:

1. Basic Knowledge of Breastfeeding
2. Breastfeeding Statistics
3. Clinical Scenarios
4. Image-Based Questions
5. Rapid Fire

Team B: WINNER- Dr. ARUN (paediatrics); Dr Abinaya (spm); Dr. Sparsha (obstetrics & gynaecology)

Team C: RUNNER-UP Dr. priyanka (paediatrics); Dr.Gokulnath (spm); Dr. Meena . (obstetrics & gynaecology)

Each round tested the participants' understanding, application, and clinical acumen related to breastfeeding practices, policies, and problem-solving skills.

After a tightly contested session, Team B emerged as the Winners, while Team C secured the Runner-Up position. The remaining teams were recognized for their participation and team spirit with certificates of participation.

The event concluded with a Valedictory Function held on 7th August 2025, where the winning teams were felicitated with certificates and gifts by the dignitaries. The session highlighted the importance of collaborative learning in improving maternal and child health outcomes. This event not only reinforced the importance of breastfeeding among young medical professionals but also fostered a spirit of academic camaraderie and interdepartmental cooperation.

DR. Abinaya from Team B was awarded the winner's certificate in the valedictory function.

DR. Gokulnath from Team c was awarded the Runner-up certificate in the valedictory function.
